

Study Hall Agreement Form

Date: _____

Student Name: _____

Parent Name: _____

RISE Study Hall is a privilege. Study Hall is a positive part of the RISE learning environment. Students approved for Study Hall are required to strictly follow all guidelines described below. Failure to do so will result in the immediate removal of the student from Study Hall for the remainder of the RISE school year. Parent will be required to pick up their student promptly. There will be no refund.

When in Study Hall, students will work quietly and independently on school assignments and homework. Use of electronic devices in Study Hall is permitted only when approved by the Directors.

Study Hall Rules:

- Students can not roam the halls during the Study Hall periods.
- Quiet independent school work.
- No games.
- Use of electronic devices, including cell phones, allowed only with the permission of the RISE Directors.
- Working on school projects with other students is permitted only with the permission of the RISE Director.
- Occasionally, the RISE Directors may need to step away from Study Hall. In this case, all Study Hall guidelines are to be strictly observed.

We, the student AND parent listed above, have read and agree to the Study Hall guidelines listed above.
